

Introducing

Loungeteer

FLYER - 27.1 MAY 2009

is A pocket sized magazine for home-educated instead of home-educators. (Though we can publish articles by educators.)

WHY More than entertainment: Loungeteer should be a learning experience. The intention is for other home-educated to be included in the production, as well as participating by simply contributing articles, artwork, photography, and so on – thus stimulating creative abilities. ©
WHEN Loungeteer publishes 4 times a year. Because of several problems, issue #1 (spring) was released very late, consequently the 'summer' issue will be skipped, pushing issue #2 to fall. To compensate, the fall issue will be released slightly early. Deadline for the next issue is July 31. Have fun!

MEANING OF *Loungeteer : a fancified version of lounger, to say that home education is more relaxed than traditional education. (As a more fascinating word than 'home-schooler'.)

PLEASE NOTE Loungeteer is experimental – on the release of issue #4, if there is enough interest, the publication will continue. However, if there is not enough interest, Loungeteer will be terminated.
